

Budyakov O.

ACTIVITY UPLSR (BORBYSTIV) IN SOUTHERN SSR IN THE LIQUIDATION POLICY OF THE BOLSHEVIKS (1919-1920 YEARS).

The article, based on extensive historiography and source base attempt of analysis of the liquidation policy of the Bolshevik party against the party barbitu of Ukraine. Identified key factors of the relationship of the Bolsheviks with PLSR(b), aspects of internal disorganization loessic movement in the South of Ukraine. It is proved that already by mid-1920, the Bolsheviks won a decisive victory over barbitone, consuming them by way of self-destruction.

It should be emphasized, Barbati, as liquidated in March 1920 Borotbists to a certain extent tried thus to avoid open confrontation with the CP(b)U and implement further their software installation within the unified Communist party of Ukraine. However, subsequent events have clearly shown the fallacy and the naivety of this position.

Last but not least help the authorities in the liquidation process had internal antagonisms among the opposition, which is reflected in the lack of unity and a clear vision of its place in the future in luoisiana environment, the consent of a number of Directors on the management positions in the organs of Soviet power - all this in a certain way was disorganized members loeseli parties, which generally negatively perceived the idea of self-destruction of PLSR(b).